

Health-y answers to comple#ity: Are we able to move beyond the control panel?

Programme

28th of November 2013, Egmont Palace, Brussels

9:00h	Welcome Lut Joris, Coordinator Be-cause health, Belgium, Nicolaus Lorenz, Chair Medicus Mundi International, Switzerland and Frank De Paepe, Director Memisa, Belgium.
9:15h	Business as usual in a changing world? By Paul Bossyns, Belgian Technical Cooperation, Belgium and Jean Macq, Université Catholique de Louvain, Belgium.
9:45h	Concepts and principles of complexity. By Ben Ramalingam, Expert International Development, United Kingdom.
10:15h	Coffee break
10:45h	Parallel sessions - part I Presentation of field stories followed by a discussion and a reflection inspired by an additional case. Each session will cover the following items and questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Recognizing and seizing opportunities to foster change in a complex situation.- Which strategies & instruments can help to deal with complexity?- Which personal mindsets and competences do we need to handle complexity?
12:45h	Lunch
14:00h	Parallel sessions - part II (Same structure as part I)
16:00h	Coffee break
16:30h	How to move beyond the control panel? Meaningful answers to complexity. By Denis Corthier, CCP-Lead, Belgium.
17:00h	Dealing with complexity in international health. By Bruno Marchal, Institute of Tropical Medicine, Belgium.
17:30h	Closure By Karel Gyselinck, Chair of Be-cause health, Belgium.
17:45h	Reception